Company's common stock. Three of the agreements are for terms ranging from 12 months to 26 months. The value of those agreements ($337,500) has been capitalized as prepaid expenses and is being recognized as consulting expense over the life of the agreement. The value of the common stock issued related to the remaining agreements ($1,050,000) has been expensed during the first quarter of 2006. Additionally, the agreements include total cash compensation of $3,050 per week and reimbursement of expenses. Lastly, two of the agreements allow for additional compensation to be determined between the Company and the consultant for specific services.

On February 24, 2006, the Company entered into a media campaign agreement for nationally syndicated newspaper and/or radio features in exchange for restricted common stock valued at $1,000,000 to be satisfied in two payments. On February 28, 2006, the Company made the first payment with the issuance of 326,797 shares of restricted common stock. The value of these shares ($550,000) has been expensed during the first quarter of 2006. During the second quarter of 2006 the Company made three monthly payments with the issuance of 101,306 shares of restricted common stock. The value of these shares ($150,000) has been expensed during the second quarter of 2006.

On April 3, 2006, the Company entered into a one-year financial and strategic consulting agreement with a consultant for investor introductions leading to qualified equity financing up to $10 million and project financing up to $100 million. Additionally the consultant will provide financial consulting services including the development of financial projections, presentation materials and customized proposals. For these services the consultant received 6,309,000 unregistered shares of restricted common stock on April 3, 2006. The value of the shares ($3,154,500) issued has been capitalized as prepaid expenses and is being recognized as consulting expense over the life of the agreement. Once it is determined that equity or debt financing will be secured as a result of this agreement, the remaining unamortized prepaid expense balance will be examined to determine what portion, if any, should be treated as a reduction of equity proceeds or as an additional cost of financing subject to amortization.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Introduction

World Energy Solutions, Inc. (referred to as the "Company", "WESI," or in the first person notations of "we," "us," and "our") began operations in 1984 under the corporate name of Professional Technical Systems, Inc. (PTS). PTS merged with WESI in November 2005 with WESI being the legal acquiror but PTS being the accounting acquiror. Therefore the financial statements presented herein are those of WESI (formerly known as PTS).

In August 2005, WESI merged with Advanced 3D Ultrasound, Inc. (ADVU) with ADVU being the legal acquiror but WESI being the accounting acquiror. ADVU changed its name to WESI.

ADVU and WESI prior to merging with PTS had no revenues and minimal assets and activity. PTS has been an operating manufacturer before and after the merger.

WESI manufactures and sells transient voltage surge suppressors and related products and commercial and residential energy-saving equipment and applications to distributors and customers throughout the United States. Although this activity is expected to continue, the Company plans to implement a new business model to market a multi-product package to commercial, industrial and residential facilities in order to lower their overall cost of electric, gas and water. The Company plans to market its package both by direct sales as well as a Shared Revenue Program (SRP) where the Company pays for the entire installation in return for a percentage of the realized savings. This new business model is expected to increase revenues and profits for the Company.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our cash decreased to approximately $123,000 as of June 30, 2006 compared to $240,000 as of December 31, 2005. This is due mostly to the repayment of loans to related parties and other loan term debt. Proceeds from the issuance of common stock have funded the cash used for operating activities.

The cash used in operations in 2006 exceeded the cash used in operations in 2005 by approximately $49,000. Although gross profit from sales increased, general and administrative expenses increased approximately $4,583,000. This increase is attributable to increased salaries and consulting fees. However, approximately $4,439,000 of salaries, consulting fees and advertising costs were funded through the issuance of common stock during the first quarter and second quarters of 2006.

We do not believe our working capital is sufficient to implement the full spectrum of our planned, new energy-saving business model. Operations in 2006 and most of 2005 have been funded in large part through the sale of common stock and such funding will need to continue in order to allow us to implement our new business model. The Company has been successful in acquiring certain services through consulting agreements that are funded in large part through the issuance of common stock as noted above. However, the Company currently is offering its stock through a private placement memorandum. The Company plans to raise up to $10,000,000 through this sale of common stock. The proceeds from the sale will be used to fund research and development, consulting and professional fees, new job installs, other expenses and for working capital.

On January 31, 2006, the Company entered into employment agreements with its CEO/CFO and President. The agreements call for annual salaries of $156,000 and 600,000 shares of Company common stock. The employment agreements contain noncompete agreements and provide for severance pay equal to one year base salary.

On January 31, 2006, the Company entered into six consulting agreements for various services including marketing, business development, product design engineering and product development, real estate acquisition and business planning. These agreements provide as compensation the issuance of 925,000 shares of common stock. Additionally, the agreements include total cash compensation of $3,050 per week and reimbursement of expenses. Lastly, two of the agreements allow for additional compensation to be determined between the Company and the consultant for specific services.

On February 24, 2006, the Company entered into a media campaign agreement for nationally syndicated newspaper and/or radio features in exchange for restricted common stock valued at $1,000,000 to be satisfied in two payments. On February 28, 2006, the Company made the first payment with the issuance of 326,797 shares of restricted common stock. During the second quarter the Company made three monthly payments with the issuance of 101,306 shares of restricted common stock. This media campaign will be utilized to gain national attention for the Company and its business model of energy saving contracts.

On April 3, 2006, the Company entered into a financial and strategic consulting agreement with a consultant for investor introductions leading to qualified equity financing up to $10 million and project financing up to $100 million. Additionally the consultant will provide financial consulting services including the development of financial projections, presentation materials and customized proposals. For these services the consultant received 6,309,000 unregistered shares of common stock on April 3, 2006.

Previously the Company had debt financing either from its officers, or guaranteed by its officers. This debt was repaid in full during the second quarter of 2006. Debt financing is not expected to be a funding resource.

Results of Operations and Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The results of operations are based on preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of financial statements requires management to select accounting policies for critical accounting areas as well as estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements. The Company's accounting policies are more fully described in Note 1 of Notes to Financial Statements found in the Company's annual financial statements filed with Form 10-KSB. We have identified the following accounting policy and related judgment as critical to understanding the results of our operations.

Valuation Allowance on Deferred Tax Assets

SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" requires that deferred tax assets be evaluated for future realization and reduced by a valuation allowance to the extent we believe a portion will not be realized. We consider many factors when assessing the likelihood of future realization of our deferred tax assets including our recent cumulative earnings experience, expectations of future taxable income, the carry-forward periods available to us for tax reporting purposes and other relevant factors. At December 31, 2005, our net deferred tax assets are $3,949,000, comprised principally of net operating loss carry forwards (NOLs). Classification of deferred tax assets between current and long-term categories is based on the expected timing of realization, and the valuation allowance is allocated on a prorata basis.

We have reflected a valuation allowance of 100%, which resulted in an income tax benefit of zero. The range of possible judgments relating to the valuation of our deferred tax asset is very wide. If we had concluded that the weight of available evidence supported a decision that substantially all of our deferred tax assets may be realized, we would have a substantial income tax benefit in our statement of operations. Significant judgment is required in making this assessment, and it is very difficult to predict when, if ever, our assessment may conclude our deferred tax assets is realizable.

2006 Compared to 2005

Total product sales for 2006 were $267,000 compared to 2005 sales of $224,000.

Gross profit on sales increased from 40% in 2005 to 49% in 2006.

Our general and administrative expenses increased to $5,085,830 in 2006 from $503,000 in 2005. The Company incurred consulting fees and advertising costs of $2,639,000 in 2006 and none in 2005 related to its proposed business model. Lastly, salaries increased approximately $1,930,000 due to increased salaries, additional personnel and the employment agreements with the Company's president and its CEO/CFO as noted above.

We expect significant increases in future consulting, salary and research and development expenses as a result of the implementation of our new business model.

Forward-looking Statement

All statements other than statements of historical fact in this report are "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and are based on management's current expectations of the Company's near term results, based on current information available and pertaining to the Company. The Company assumes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements. Actual results may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures.

(a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures

The Company's management, recognizes its responsibility for establishing and maintaining internal control over financial reporting for the Company. After evaluating the effectiveness of our "disclosure controls and procedures" (as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) as of June 30, 2006 (the "Evaluation Date"), the Company's management has concluded, as of the Evaluation Date, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were adequate and designed to ensure the information required to be disclosed in the reports filed or submitted by us under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported with in the requisite time periods.

(b) Effectiveness of Internal Control

The Company's management is reviewing the Company's internal controls over financial reporting to determine the most suitable recognized control framework. The Company will give great weight and deference to the product of the discussions of the SEC's Advisory Committee on Smaller Public Companies (the "Advisory Committee") and the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations' task force entitled Implementing the COSO Control Framework in Smaller Businesses (the "Task Force"). Both the Advisory Committee and the Task Force are expected to provide practical, needed guidance regarding the applicability of Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act to small business issuers. The Company's management intends to perform the evaluation required by Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act at such time as a framework is adopted by the Company. At such time the Company adopts and implements a framework and as required by the SEC's reporting requirements, the Company's registered accounting firm will issue an "attestation report" on the Company management's assessment of internal controls.

(c) Changes in Internal Controls

After evaluation by the Company's management, the Company's management has determined there were no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect the Company's internal controls subsequent to the Evaluation Date.
